

Leave Indiana's telephone privacy law alone. I am so pleased with the telephone not ringing the evening and night away. When I use the phone I want to be able to talk to friends and family, not some one selling something. Please consider using our law for everyone.
Thank you